IOWA FARMERS FAVOR SENATOR BROOKHART

APPARENTLY REPUDIATE THE ADMINISTRATION

VETERAN SENATOR CUMMINS IS DEFEATED BY LARGE
FIGURE

DEMOCRATS NOW BASE HOPES ON WINNING BECAUSE OF SPLIT

By IRWIN L. FEMRITE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Des Moines, Ia., June 8. — The Iowa farm vote today had apparently repudiated the national administration by naming Smith W. Brookhart as the republican nominee for United States senator.

Returns from more than one half of the precincts of the state this morning indicated that Brookhart, progressive proponent of agricultural relief, had defeated the veteran Senator Albert B. Cummins by more than 30,000 plurality. Some politicians estimate that Brookhart will pile up a lead of from 50,000 to 70,000 votes over Cummins, close friend of the national administration, by the time the final ballots are cast. The vote this morning shows Brookhart 123,723, Cummins 85,554.

Other republican candidates were running far in the rear.

In the democratic race, Claude R. Porter had a good lead over J. C. Murtagh, with J. C. Files running a good third.

Senator Cummins, now 76 years old, was first elected to the senate 18 years ago on a farm relief platform. Brookhart, the new nominee, is 56 years old, and served one short term in the senate, having been defeated by Daniel J. Steck, democrat, in 1924.

Democrats are basing their hopes of winning the election through the split in the republican party similar to the break which elected Steck in 1924. In that election the regular republicans who hold a brief against the progressive Brookhart, broke from the republican ticket and gave Steck sufficient strength for election.

So complete was the rout of Iowa's senior senator today that even his own supporters admitted his defeat, so far as the early returns were considered.

The defeat of Cummins and the nomination of Brookhart, a farm bloc leader, who was defeated by his senate seat in 1924 by Daniel J. Steck, only after a senatorial recount, can easily be construed an answer of the Iowa farmers to the national administration's farm policies.

When the president spoke in Chicago last summer the Iowa voters for many years republicans, began to disagree with the national administration's farm relief policy. The state's hardest hit by the collapse of land prices, banks and farm products, started talking and listening to farm relief measures.

Since that meeting numerous farm relief sessions have been held over the state and the Haugen bill has been the principal discussion. Former Senator Brookhart, posing as the savior of the Iowa farmers, capitalized this sentiment in his vigorous state wide campaign.

The issue became even more clear cut in the closing hour of the campaign when the senate farm bloc, composed of a group of middle western progressive leaders, urged Iowa voters to repudiate the national administration and name Brookhart as the republican nominee.

Today's vote apparently was the voice of resentment against the "eastern viewpoint" which Iowa farmers claim Senator Cummins has accepted along with his close alignment to the national administration. Cummins a few years ago was known as a progressive republican fighting for farm relief but as he grew older in senate duties he has become more and more of a stand pat republican. Cummins workers in the campaign attempted to keep the administration out of the fight, declaring that Cummins was a thorough disciple of farm relief and that he had broken with Coolidge over farm relief. This argument, however, apparently had little effect.

VARIOUS INTERPRETATIONS GIVEN TO THE VICTORY

SUSPECT SLAYING OF GRANDMOTHER AND 2 CHILDREN

POLICE INVESTIGATE FIRE IN SMALL COTTAGE ON LONG ISLAND

AUTOPSY DISCLOSED WOMAN HAD BEEN BEATEN TO DEATH WITH CLUB

New York, June 8. — (UP) — The murder of an aged woman and her two small grandchildren was suspected by police today following investigation of a fire in a small cottage on Long Island. The bodies of Mrs. Mary Ponzelli, 65, Mary Mazola, 4, and John Mazola, 2, were found burned in the cottage at the edge of the Jamaica marshes yesterday.

At first it was thought they had died in the flames, but an autopsy disclosed that the woman had been beaten to death with a club and the girl stabbed frequently in the abdomen. The boy's body was too badly burned to permit definite conclusions.

THREATS MADE TO KIDNAP DUCHESS OF YORK, ENGLAND

London, June 8. — (UP) — Threats have been made to kidnap the Duchess of York, daughter-in-law to King George and Queen Mary, today's Daily Mirror said. An illiterate letter, containing the threat, was intercepted en route to her royal highness, the paper reported.

It was understood that the letter mentioned the Duchess' impending visit to Sandwich as a guest of Lady Astor as the time determined upon for the kidnapping. A lunatic with a hatred for the entire royal family is believed to have written the letter, as it was reported that a letter similarly scrawled was received at Buckingham palace a few days ago.

The Duchess' name has been unusually prominent in the newspapers during the last two months owing to the birth of her daughter, the Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary. She is the wife of the King's second son, the Duke of York.

New York, June 8. — (UP) — Heyworth Cutting, sportsman, explorer and wealthy member of an old New York family, was killed Sunday in an automobile accident near Glen Cove, L. I., as he was returning from a dinner and dance given in honor of the Crown Prince Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden. The car turned over when one of the tires went flat.

BRIAND ORDERS AMERICAN'S LIFE NOT FORFEITED

GILBERT CLARE IS AMERICAN
MEMBER OF FRENCH FOREIGN LEGION

CLARE, BELIEVED TO BE BEN-
NETT DOTY, CHARGED WITH DESERTION

Paris, June 8. — (UP) — Acting on Premier Briand's instructions, War Minister Paul Painleve today telegraphed the general commanding the army of the Orient at Damascus, ordering him to prevent the execution of Gilbert Clare, American member of the foreign legion.

(Clare is believed to be Bennett Doty of Memphis, Tenn., and Biloxi, Miss.)

This step was undertaken despite the fact that Paris has not been officially informed of any order to execute Clare, the war ministry having no facts on the case beyond the information that the American was charged with attempting to desert.

At the war ministry doubt was expressed of the report that the council of war had ordered the execution of an American since under normal circumstances Paris would have been advised of such an order.

At the time Briand acted, American Ambassador Herrick had not yet received instructions from Washington in the case, but half an hour later he was instructed to intercede formally on the American's behalf.

Sheldon Whitehouse of the American embassy staff, will call on the foreign office this afternoon to discuss the case.

Premier Briand's act in which he used his power of grace without consulting President Doumergue, was a dramatic one. Getting his information of the case from newspapers without official reports confirming that the American was in danger, he acted even before being approached by friends of the prisoner.

Paris, June 8. — The case of Bennett J. Doty, Memphis, Tenn., member of the French foreign legion, whose life may be forfeited before a firing squad, for desertion, will be viewed leniently, the foreign office assumed today. T. Herrick, United States ambassador, today.

Doty is known in the foreign legion as Gilbert Clare.

The ambassador was informed that Minister of War Painleve had ordered a stay of execution of Doty, who is in Syria.

Painleve today telegraphed Gen. Gamelin, commanding in Syria, asking a full report of Doty's case.

TOMCAT RESCUED BY CHOPPING DOWN A TREE

Minneapolis, June 8. — (UP) — A pussycat squawled in a tree top out around 27th avenue for two days.

The cat had gone up after a bird. But a heavy wind kept it up against its inclinations. Even fire department ladders could not reach poor Tabby on the second day and neighbors implored firemen to "do something."

The firemen did. They cut down the tree and the cat came down with it unharmed.

POLISH GUARDS DRIVE BACK THE LITHUANIANS

FRONTIER GUARDS AND REGU-LAR SOLDIERS INVADIED 8-
MILE STRIP OF POLAND

SMALL STATES FREQUENTLY DIS-AGREE ABOUT TREATY-
MADE BOUNDARIES

Berlin, June 8. — (UP) — Polish guards have driven back across the border the Lithuanian frontier guards and regular soldiers, who, on May 15, when the Polish revolution was in progress, invaded an eight-mile strip of Polish territory.

The Lithuanians subsequently concentrated in the Podlajga forest, apparently hoping to remain unmolested because of the disturbed conditions. In driving the invaders across the border, the Poles captured a Lithuanian private, Anton Niemieske, and it was charged that dum-dum bullets were found in his possession.

The succession states which were born of the empires destroyed by the war, frequently disagree regarding their treaty-made boundaries. That is particularly true of the Baltic states, where incidents such as the Lithuanian invasion of Poland have occurred frequently since 1918.

Continues To Be Norwegian Lutheran Church Congregation

Minneapolis, June 8. — (UP) — It will continue to be the Norwegian Lutheran church as a result of the general convention here defeating an attempt to strike out the word "Norwegian."

The committee on home missions recommended a name that would eliminate the "Norwegian" and church leaders urged adoption of the report, including Rev. T. X. Gullikson, vice president.

"The fact that this question has come to us from four committees indicates its pressing need," Rev. Gullikson said. "A change in name will not affect the use of Norwegian in the churches if we are to make a mistake I would rather have it make five years too early than five years too late."

But the more conservative judgment prevailed, as expressed by Dr. H. G. Stub, president emeritus, who voiced the opinion that the change must come but that it was too early to take such action.

The question, however, will come up again at the biennial convention two years hence.

TWO FREIGHT TRAINS IN HEADON COLLISION

2 MEN KILLED, 4 INJURED ON CANADIAN RAILROAD NEAR WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, Man., June 8. — (UP) — Two men were killed and one is missing as the result of a headon collision between two freight trains on the Canadian National railway early this morning, 55 miles east of Winnipeg. Four other men, all trainmen, were injured.

The dead: Tom Plunkett, Winnipeg engineer, and an unidentified man, thought to have been stealing a ride on one of the trains.

AVIATOR WAS KILLED ON NEW AIR MAIL ROUTE

TAKING INITIAL FLIGHT ON THE LINE, CHICAGO AND NORTHWEST

THREE OTHER PLANES MADE
FORCED LANDINGS, TWO
ARRIVE SAFELY

Minneapolis, June 8. — (UP) — An aviator was killed in a crash in establishing two way contact by air mail route between Chicago and the northwest. Three other airplanes made forced landings, but two reached their destinations safely.

Elmer L. Partridge of Chicago, flying an airplane of his own construction, was killed. He made the trip from Chicago safely and then took off from the St. Paul-Minneapolis field, apparently was carried off his course and crashed in a field four miles south of Mendota, late Monday.

Pierce headwinds were combated by the pioneers of air mail service to the northwest and three were forced down, one at LaCrosse, Wis.; another at Rio, Wis., and a third at Bangor, Wis. All three made safe landings.

The two remaining planes encountered difficulty in keeping to their course, but arrived at their destinations safely, one reaching the Twin Cities and the other landing at Chicago.

The status of the six planes follows:
No. 1, Dan Kaiser, pilot, left Chicago at 6:15 A. M. Forced down at Rio, Wis., at 8:30 A. M. with cargo intact.

No. 2, Nimmo Black, pilot, left Chicago at 6:20 A. M. Forced down at LaCrosse, Wis., at 11:30 A. M. and resumed flight to Twin Cities at 3:45 P. M., arriving at 5:35 P. M.

No. 3, Elmer L. Partridge, pilot, left LaCrosse, Wis., at 8 A. M. Forced down by gas shortage north of Robbinsdale and turned back to reach Twin Cities at 2 P. M. Hopped off for Chicago at 3:05 P. M. and killed in full four miles south of field at 3:40 P. M.

No. 6, E. H. Laird, pilot, left Chicago at 1:03 P. M. Forced down at LaCrosse at 6:05 P. M.

CLAIMED JEALOUSY PROMPTED GIRL TO SHOOT LOVER

Amidon, N. D., June 8. — (UP) — Jealousy is the motive authorities intended today to attempt to establish as having caused Bessie Lang, 24, to shoot Kenneth Sletto. Miss Lang is expected to be tried during the Slope county district court term starting today.

Bessie fired six shots, five of which took effect, at Sletto, as he entered a farm home 30 miles northeast of Marmarth with a young woman to attend a neighborhood party.

That was several months ago. Sletto hovered between life and death for several days, but showed amazing vitality in recovering.

It was learned later that Miss Lang and Sletto had been sweethearts, but that the young farmer's ardor had cooled.

Miss Lang suffered a nervous breakdown after the shooting.

ENDEAVORS TO REFUTE CONFESSION

Pawhuska, Okla., June 8. — (UP) — John Ramsey, one of three charged with the death of W. E. Smith, will continue on the stand today in the Osage murder trial, to refute a confession, saying that he murdered Henry Roan Horse, Osage Indian. The confession related Henry Roan Horse and Ramsey got drunk together and then went to a lonely spot in the northeast of the county where Ramsey shot the Indian as he sat in a car. The body was found a few days later frozen.

Ramsey, his confession stated, received a car and some money from William K. Hale, likewise charged with the Smith murder.

The confession states Ramsey worked for Henry Grammar, killed recently in an automobile accident and implicated in the Smith slaying, and that he (Ramsey) did not believe he could do such things until he got running with Henry Grammar.

GOVERNMENT, FIRST TIME SINCE THE WAR, FINDS LOANS
NOT NEEDED

UNNECESSARY TO BORROW TO CARRY ON NATION'S BUSINESS

Washington, June 8. — (UP) — Advocates of further tax cuts were encouraged today by announcement from Secretary of the Treasury Mellon that the government for the first time since the war, has found it unnecessary to borrow to carry on the nation's business.

Administration supporters were still wary of predicting that the treasury would be able soon to make new tax cuts, but the politically wise insisted treasury indications now point to the chance of cuts by 1928 — presidential election year.

Secretary Mellon announced that the government will make no offering of bonds or certificates for sale on June 15.

Upholds Imposition of Bread and Water Diet for Offender

Lincoln, Neb., June 8. — (UP) — The Nebraska supreme court today upheld the imposition of a bread and water diet for the first 20 and the last 20 days of a two months sentence for violation of state liquor laws.

The case was on appeal from the findings of Judge Orville Chat of Butte county. As the result of the opinion, written by Justice W. H. Thompson, with his associates concurring, Ray Carson and Thomas Nelson face 40 days of light fare in the county jail.

Four men, Howard Whitacre, Cecil Spielman, Carson and Nelson originally were assessed a fine to $100 each and sentenced to 60 days, forty of them on bread and water diet, in jail by County Judge Chat.

The law providing for both fine and imprisonment was not in effect at that time and as the court cancelled the fine of Carson and Nelson, they are the only members of the quartet who will be forced to serve the "diet sentence."

Adequate steps to combat the situation, faculty opinion declares, will demand reconstruction of teaching methods and class room procedure. More thorough going study of the situation was recommended.

Milwaukee, June 8. — (UP) — Undaunted by harrowing experiences of yesterday, the opening day, William Brock, air mail pilot, today undertook the northbound flight on the Chicago-Milwaukee-Twin Cities route. LON CHANEY in "THE BLACK BIRD"

Strange Houdini Trapdoors Built for New Chaney Photoplay

Strange trapdoors, patterned after the trick escapes of illusionists like Houdini or Herrmann, were built under the supervision of a professional mystifier for details in "The Black Bird," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture playing at the Lyceum tonight and Wednesday with Lon Chaney in a dual role.

These mysterious panels and trapdoors are those that Chaney is seen using, as the Limehouse crime czar, in his baffling escapes from Scotland Yard.

The traps were designed by Harry Sharrock, for many years famous in vaudeville as a mind reader and illusionist. Sharrock built them just as they are constructed in "escape illusions" and their effect as a secret getaway for a criminal in the picture is remarkable.

Chaney plays a dual role, one, that of a crook ruler and the other a crippled worker in a rescue mission in the new story, which Tod Browning directed from Waldemar Young's scenario.

LOW LAKE LEVELS

EVERYWHERE one sees that spectre of the north, low water levels. The Brainerd Fishing club were at Walker and engaged launches to carry them to Ottetail Point. On the way over and back, the small launches bumped and scraped the bars. A strong wind blew and that helped to make the water seem so much shallower.

The big boat that used to make the trip and carry the whole fishing club of 40 members, has so much draft that it could not be used on the lake and it has been transferred to a lake near Bemidji. Navigation of upper Leech lake is actually impeded by the low water.

Local citizens led by A. M. Opsahl, the Chamber of Commerce, resort keepers, lake residents, the Izaak Walton League and many other people and interests in our Brainerd Lake region are insisting upon proper lake levels. In congress Harold Knutson has championed the cause of adequate lake levels and in a letter to J. F. Gould, commissioner of game and fish, the congressman wrote of an agreement perfected with the War Department district engineers, regulating the flow of Cross Lake and Sandy Lake.

The War Department has been prodded so that Secretary of War Dwight T. Davis wrote Senator Thomas D. Schall, saying, in part:

"This subject has been before this Department quite prominently for the past month or more on account of the very low levels of the lakes forming the reservoirs at the headwaters of the Mississippi, and active steps are now being taken to so regulate the levels of these lakes as to minimize as much as possible the damage due to the low levels.

"The condition of the lakes has been brought about by the fact that there was an unusually small amount of snow on the drainage area of these lakes during the winter, and a great deficiency in the rainfall this spring. These are conditions which of course this Department is powerless to prevent, but it may be possible to do something toward so regulating the outflow from the lakes as to somewhat improve the conditions at the dams which, it is now stated, are preventing the fish from reaching their spawning grounds.

"The reservoirs were built and have been operated for the benefit of navigation on the Mississippi River below St. Paul. The improvement of the rivers and harbors of the country for the benefit of navigation is not considered a "private undertaking." This work has been carried on by the Government for the public benefit almost since the formation of this Government. In the particular case in question, it is true that the water power developments do incidentally benefit by the water which is released from the reservoirs, but this is purely an incidental benefit. It is probable also that the reservoirs could be so manipulated as to have some effect upon the flood conditions in the upper Mississippi, but as I have just stated, this is not their primary object, and it is not always possible to so regulate them as to control floods and benefit navigation.

"The improvement of the Mississippi River below St. Paul is now being studied under authority from Congress, and it may be possible to develop a plan of improvement which will make the operation of the reservoirs for the benefit of navigation unnecessary, and if this should prove to be the case, the regulation of the levels of the lakes will assume a very different aspect than it has at the present time.

"I wish to assure you that I am sympathetic with the residents of Minnesota who are interested in preserving the fish and game life on these lakes and of those people who have summer places on the lakes; and I shall do everything I can to have the dams so operated as to give the greatest benefit to all interested parties.

"Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Dwight T. Davis,
Secretary of War."

THE CLOSED CAR

THE closed car is the coming automobile, in fact it has arrived for some time and so holds the center in car construction. The open car is a pleasure car, it is true, but should loose gravel or other unlooked for complications cause it to swerve from the road and upset, the open car has no protection whatever for its passengers. Injuries or deaths usually result when the open car upsets.

With a closed car it at least gives its passenger list a chance to slip out to safety through the roof or otherwise. In a recent accident on the No. 27 detour six people went through the roof to safety before the car hit the ground a second time and tore off half the body. Roofs are purposely built light with no heavy stays so as to permit egress.

CLIFFORD L. HILTON is a candidate for re-nomination as attorney general of Minnesota. He has won a series of important victories for the people of the state, and has brought into the state treasury more money than any other individual through his ability and fearless enforcement of the law. No state is more ably served by its attorney general than is Minnesota, and he will receive an endorsement from the people that will be the measure of their enthusiastic approval.—St. Cloud Daily Journal Press.

At the house judiciary committee meeting there was a difference of opinion, and Representative Rankin threw an ink well, Frank J. Hogan threw a glass of water. No mention was made if the missiles hit their marks. A shower of blotting paper would have been in order to follow the ink barrage.

THE original finger print expert was Ma when she examined the trail of the youthful pie or jam robber. Ma had an uncanny way of picking the trail that led to the culprit.

Among insurgents and farm relief bloc members, it was hailed with satisfaction. In administration quarters it was taken as indication that the west is in revolt. Rightly or wrongly, the fall of Cummins was viewed as a severe slap at the Coolidge regime.

To the farm relief group, it spelled possibly slightly better prospects for their efforts to get farm relief through this congress. To the republican machine it sounded a rebuke to Senator Butler, Massachusetts, head of the organization, for engineering Brookhart's ousting from the senate in favor of Daniel Steck, democrat.

Opponents of the administration chortled that it was a new handwriting on the political wall, rounding out the recent defeats to administration men in Illinois and Pennsylvania.

Des Moines, Ia., June 8.—Smith W. Brookhart, insurgent proponent of farm relief and former senator, today apparently had been vindicated by the Iowa republican voters, who failed to elect him in 1924.

Returns from 1,591 precincts out of the state's 2,447, show Brookhart leading the race for the republican nomination to the senate by more than 40,000 votes over his closest opponent, the veteran Albert B. Cummins.

The vote: Brookhart 155,323; Cummins 112,792.

The other republican candidates are trailing far behind.

Politicians were inclined to believe that votes from the remaining precincts will give Brookhart a much greater plurality, some estimating his strength as high as 70,000 votes.

In the democratic race Claude R. Porter held a good lead over J. C. Murtagh.

All of the republican congressmen seeking renomination, with the exception of Gilbert N. Haugen, author of the Haugen bill for farm relief, apparently are having an easy time.

Haugen holds a small lead over Ewald W. Berman and most politicians believe his renomination is assured.

IOWA PRIMARY RESULTS REVIEWED

Washington, June 8.—The Iowa primary shows that republican voters will not follow the present party leadership unless it is fair to republican senators of the farming west and to farmers on relief legislation.

Senator George W. Norris, republican, Nebraska, said today.

The indicated victory of Smith W. Brookhart, insurgent, over A. B. Cummins, administration incumbent, for the republican senatorial nomination in Iowa, was interpreted by Norris as a warning to President Coolidge and Chairman Butler of the republican national committee (although he did not mention their names in his statement).

Norris' statement recalled that Butler rallied sufficient votes to oust Brookhart from his seat a few weeks ago in the senate election contest brought against him by Daniel J. Steck, democrat.

"In nominating Brookhart, the people of Iowa have reasserted their faith in progressive principles," said Senator LaFollette, republican, Wisconsin, another of the signers of the now famous pro-Brookhart letter.

"The Iowa voters also have affirmed their right to name their own representative in congress and have served notice to the country that the farmers have been treated unfairly in the matter of farm relief," LaFollette declared.

A statement was issued by Senator Cummins at 11:15 A. M., thanking his workers for their efforts in his behalf. The statement said:

"I have nothing to say, except to express in this way my deep appreciation to my friends in Iowa for their constant, untiring work in my behalf. They have done everything for us that unselfish men and women could do. I am profoundly grateful to them and this gratitude will continue to long as I live."

Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, said:

"It is a clear cut victory on the issue of farm relief. The Iowa farmers have said that they want something done. Congress should not adjourn before it has met this demand."

While the White House gave no official indication of its reaction to the result of the primary, an intimate of the administration declared that President Coolidge does not intend to alter the administration farm policy, although he recognizes that this plank was the principal factor in the primary.

"The president cannot afford to change this policy over night because of the result of the Iowa primary," the spokesman explained.

Signaling the insurgent victory the senate this afternoon adopted the first amendment to the pending farm relief bill, an inconsequential change which merely revised the wording of the far-reaching agricultural bill.

The action, which was taken by unanimous consent, marked the first definite step in passing judgment on the bill.

Sen. Steck, democrat, Iowa, who ousted Brookhart, then obtained the floor and spoke of the troubles of the farmers and the necessity for adoption of some legislation similar to the pending Haugen bill.

Des Moines, Ia., June 8.—Colonel Smith W. Brookhart's lead over Senator Albert B. Cummins for the Iowa republican senatorial nomination, mounted to more than 50,000 votes this afternoon. Returns from 1,893 precincts out of 2,447, gave Brookhart 166,930, Cummins 113,599 and Clark 53,112.

Claude R. Porter was leading his opponents for the democratic nomination by more than 4,000 votes on the basis of returns from 902 precincts.

His percentage was above the 35 per cent required for nomination.

The vote in the democratic race was: Porter 13,225; J. Ray Files, 8,364; J. C. Murtagh, 6,667; George Finch, 2,740.

35 HIGH GRADE CALVES PRESENTED TO BOYS AND GIRLS

Ortonville, Minn., June 8.—(UP)—Thirty-five high grade dairy calves found new homes here today when they were presented to boys and girls who will groom them for the Ortonville Journal gold club contests.

The calves were selected from Ottetail county by George M. Foshburgh, Big Stone club leader, assisted by Professor A. J. Edson, dairy specialist, West Central school, Morris.

80 MEN OVERCOME BY GAS IN IRONTON, OHIO, CEMENT PLANT

Ironton, Ohio, June 8.—(UP)—Eighty men were overcome by gas from an undetermined source when they entered the workings of the Alpha Portland Cement Co., here yesterday. All were rescued.

Presence of the gas was not discovered until the men neared the entrance to the 600-foot shaft. Several men bringing up the rear, sensing the presence of gas when they saw their comrades fall, managed to reach the open air and sounded an alarm.

Rescue crews immediately entered the shaft and carried the men to safety.

AFOUL OF GAME LAWS

Minneapolis, June 8.—(UP)—Joseph Siegal, Biwabik butcher, was under arrest today following discovery by the state game and fish department of 76 beaver and 180 muskrat pelts valued at $1,500 in his possession.

Siegal had been followed, according to J. F. Gould, commissioner of the department, through several range towns to Minneapolis where the arrest was made. The pelts were said to be on exhibition for buyers, were not tagged and had apparently been taken in the spring.

DOUGLAS COUNTY BALLOTS CONFUSING

Alexandria, Minn., June 8.—(UP)—Voters of Douglas county are going to give careful study to the ballots for the June primary elections. There's a reason, 49 reasons, in fact, for that many have filed for office.

Where no more than two have announced candidacies for one office, they automatically become opposing candidates in the general election and their names need not appear on the primary ballot. But there are 14 candidates in the race for sheriff and other offices are almost as popular.

Names, too, will confuse voters. There are five Oisons, three Lunds and two Theodore Walsteads in the race for the various nominations.

In these cases the occupation and residence of the candidate will appear on the ballot.

Brown and you

Brown's a good fellow, but he's different from you. He isn't successful the way you are. He's got a funny taste in clothes. He doesn't understand what makes a good show or a good book. He doesn't golf. He isn't popular, either—Brown. Not the way you are. Oh, Brown is as far removed from you as the North Pole!

But—at that, there are certain things. Both of you feel suddenly old when you see a pack of kids swimming frankly in the creek. Both of you get a tight throat when you watch men hoist the flag. Both of you fiercely want your sons to grow up into fine, respected men. Both of you want to get on, and save money, and cut some kind of figure in the world. Both of you get hungry along about dinner-time.

Not so very different after all. In lots of ways Brown and you are pretty close. In the human, simple things. Has it ever struck you how closely advertising deals with just those simple human things? Advertising gets down to fundamentals—the health of your children, the happiness of your wife, your comfort. It tells ways to save money and time and energy. It touches you in a hundred ways—in the ways that make you and that good fellow, Brown, pretty much alike.

Read the advertising in the newspapers. It is important. It is human and helpful. It is dedicated to Brown and you.

If it's advertised, you can be sure it serves an important home need. Read the advertisements

NATIONAL HOLSTEIN SALE AT WAUKESHA

Waukesha, Wis., June 8.—(UP)—Announcement was made here today that arrangements had been completed for holding the national Holstein sale here on Nov. 16 and 17 and at Watertown on Nov. 18 and 19.

This is the second time a national sale of this kind has been held here, the national Ayrshire sale having been held at the local pavilion about two years ago.

Three men, prominent in Holstein breeding, are now working on the program. They are:

Judge R. E. Haeger, Algonquin, Ill.; Francis Darcy, Watertown, and William Baird, of this city. They are rounding up the pure bred cattle, which will be brought to this city and Watertown to be sold during the four days to the sale.

According to Baird, it is expected about 300 pure bred cattle from all sections of the nation will be brought here.

OUR LONDON STYLE LETTER

Women seize man's favorite colors for their own, and copy his style

LONDON:—Now that women are assuming some of our masculine fashions, it is merely a case of tit for tat. Keen observers of everything appertaining to man and his clothes must admit that the colors which women make popular one season often have their influence on male fashion the following year.

The fair sex have taken up cedar and plumbloom with gusto. London and Parisian women's tailors have been placing such large orders with English woolen merchants that the men's tailors complain they are unable to meet the demand for these shades.

Another little item of interest is that women are wearing tailor-made jackets of a plain color with a skirt of the same ground but carrying stripes or over checks. So have they borrowed from us the idea of black jacket and waistcoat worn with striped trousers, or self jacket and waistcoat to go with plus fours carrying brilliant checks.

On the Riviera golf courses last month I saw many women's golf suits made in cedar, sand, beige, and rust, the skirts having bright checks or plaids, but the ground color matching the jacket.

The Harrow blue blazer which the young man of today wears with silver grey flannels is being copied by Miss 1926 in a jacket and skirt, the latter in silver pleated. Again we find a jacket in brown in any of the bracken shades worn with either a grey or white skirt, just as the Oxford and Cambridge men are wearing a brown double-breasted jacket with white or colored flannel trousers.

Miss 1926 has gone crazy on a soft felt hat worn at a rakish angle. What is it but a reproduction of the snap brim soft felt which the Prince of Wales originally introduced to the United States?

FASHIONS

By HEDDA HOYT

New York, June 8.—(UP)—A decade ago it was said that one could always distinguish a real lady by her gloves. Today, both ladies and women wear gloves so the rule holds no meaning. But one can tell the well-dressed woman from the one who has poor taste in grooming by her accessories. The fashionable woman pays as much heed to her gloves, scarf, handkerchief, as she does to her frock or hat. Each frock has its own particular accessories selected to harmonize with her color scheme and to the suitability of the occasion.

For instance, one evening this week at a country club dance where the elite mingle with those in lesser walks of life, we could distinguish the ladies from the lesser lights by their evening accessories. In the dressing rooms some carried little rhinestoned vanity cases provided with all the necessary cosmetic required for the evening, while others pulled grimy powder puffs out of their hosiery. Some, who had traveled by train to the club, carried their slippers in scarfs or wrapped in paper. Others had dainty slipper bags made purposely for such occasions. There was no borrowing of lip-sticks by the refined element.

Women who smoked cigarettes carried their own special brands to the tables. One gaily dressed young Miss had a package of a popular brand clasped in her powdered hand. More fastidious ones carried little cigarette and powder cases combined. Evening bags are a necessity. One can't carry a fancy afternoon bag with an evening gown since the evening vanity must harmonize with the frock. A charming idea of the evening vanity is the completely jeweled bag rhinestones. This can be worn with any colored frock and recently introduced are little white or colored chiffon handkerchiefs studded with rhinestones at the corners.

It isn't the dress which carries the day in fashionable world. It's the dress plus the accessories. Without them we are merely shop girls on parade. We fool no one into the idea of believing that we are fashionable. It takes refinement and good taste to select accessories.

BERLENBACH TO MEET STRIBLING SOON

CHAMPIONSHIP BOUT IS SET FOR THURSDAY NIGHT

STAKE

ENCE IN THEIR WEIGHTS

By PAUL W. WHITE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, June 8.—Paul Berlenbach and Young Stribling today completed their training program for Thursday night's championship bout in which Berlenbach's light heavy-weight title will be at stake.

Both fighters are so close to the 175 pounds weight limit that scarcely half a pound will separate them. Although for one of the few times in pugilistic history, the challenger has been a favorite over the champion, the odds were virtually even today when reports spread that Stribling was too finely trained.

Those who watched him in his final boxing workout yesterday, agreed that he was on edge. His nerves seemed drawn and the astuteness had some effect upon the timing of blows against sparring partners. "Pa" Stribling, the challenger's father and manager, said that he believed his son was trained to perfection, however.

Now that he will have two days just for light exercise, his nerves will get a rest and put him at exactly the right edge, the elder Stribling said.

So widespread is interest in the bout that Tex Rickard who is staging the show at the Yankee stadium, announced that he could not take time off Thursday afternoon to visit the boxing commission and lay down his heavyweight plans.

The date when Rickard is expected to announce Jack Dempsey's next opponent is now set for June 15, but the time may be extended even further. The commission gave Dempsey until June 22 to sign for a bout with Harry Wills, but the best guessers in the community agree that the big negro does not figure in Rickard's plans. Gene Tunney is expected to get the nomination and if he does, there will be plenty of verbal fireworks.

The cab drew up in front of the imposing marble mansion, and he jauntily alighted. Watching the Scoreboard

Yesterday's Hero—Ed Wells, Detroit pitcher, who shut out the Senators 1 to 0, running his string of scoreless innings to 22.

George Uhle struck out Babe Ruth with the bases full and his excellent hurling gave the Indians a 5 to 2 victory over the Yankees.

The White Sox came from behind in the closing innings of their game with Boston to win 10 to 5.

Simmons' homer aided the Athletics in beating the Browns 7 to 2, giving Philadelphia the rubber game of the series.

The Brewers went into the lead in the American association by registering their 14th straight victory, while the Colonels were downed by the Senators. This ties the association record for Senators winning 14 to 1.

Faeth held the Colonels to four hits, the Senators winning 14 to 1.

Milwaukee beat Minneapolis 7 to 1. Rallying in the eighth, scoring four runs, the Saints defeated the Blues 10 to 9.

The Indians made it three out of four from the Hens, winning 8 to 2. McCullough made two homers for Toledo.

One of Nature's Mysteries

If you put a little salt in water it dissolves. Boil the water away and the salt reappears. What then becomes of the salt while it is dissolved into water? The water dissolves it into small particles highly charged with the wonderful and mysterious stuff we call electricity. The scientist, Rawson, tells us there is no other substance on earth which does that when dissolved in water. It might be worth a good deal to the world to know why salt has this peculiarity. N. P. TEAM SIGNS ZAKARIASEN TO PITCH GAME SUNDAY

BRAINERD HURLER, CARLETON MAN, ON MOUND FOR LOCALS

NEW YORK MILLS HERE FOR GAME, LOCALS LOST FIRST,
7 TO 6

When the Brainerd N. P. City team lines up for the game next Sunday with the fast New York Mills nine, Brainerd fans will have a chance to see one of Brainerd's own home products in action on the mound.

Zakariassen, former pitcher for the local high school, and now a mainstay on the Carleton College pitching staff, has been secured to throw for Brainerd. Zakariassen has just completed the school year at college, and comes here fresh from a successful season.

Receiving Zak's twirls will be Norman, veteran catcher of the city team, now recovered from the injury which has kept him out of the game for the last few weeks. In his last game before he was put out of commission, Norman caught with the skill of a Ray Schalk, and he will be back in the line-up with all the stored up pep of the last several weeks.

New York Mills defeated Brainerd at the Mills a few weeks ago by a score of 7 to 6. As yet the locals have not won a game, but with the line-up in its best condition of the year, and with Zakariassen on the mound, the team will be out to put themselves in the good graces of all local fandom with a break into the win column.

The rest of the line-up will most likely see Hanson at first base, Uddenberg at second base, Peterson on shortstop, Ware at third base, and Nutting, Sheffo, Ringer, Ziebell and Schwindeman in the outfield.

Under the plan of the American Youth Award and the American Teacher Award, each state will select a boy and a girl and a woman teacher who best represent American ideals, and they will be given trips to Philadelphia and to Washington, where they will receive medals from President Coolidge.

MARY K. BROWNE LEFT IN SINGLES

Paris, June 8.—(UP)—Defeat of Elizabeth Ryan by Joan Fry the young English girl, has left Mary K. Browne, the only American remaining in women's singles of the international hard court championship. Miss Browne is in the lower half of the draw and may meet Suzanne Lenglen in the finals. Suzanne's match against Mme Rene Mathieu, postponed yesterday because of rain will be played today.

Miss Fry will meet Suzanne in the semi-finals. In their only previous engagement the French woman won 6-2, 6-0.

Drizzling rain again today reduced the number of spectators but play continued.

Howard Kinsey of California defeated L. Astrangul, 6-4, 6-0.

Paris, June 8.—Mary K. Browne of California today removed Kitty McKane Godfree of England from her path toward a meeting with Suzanne Lenglen and a first class American player may yet have an opportunity to extend the French star.

Miss Browne is not in Lenglen's class, but she should be able to give the French girl a real workout.

The score of today's match was 7-5, 6-0.

Favoring vastly inferior matches, the racing club management which is conducting the French championships, assigned the Browne-Godfree match, the best on the day's card, to an isolated back court where the gallery scarcely could penetrate. There were no linesmen and Miss Browne refused to accept another official's out against Mrs. Godfree.

"It was a foot inside," protested Miss Browne and thereupon stopped the match, demanding linesmen. Two persons volunteered from among the spectators.

The Dutch player, Mlle. Bouman, defeated Mlle. Contoslavos, 6-2, 7-9, 8-5.

Lenglen and Didi Vlasto defeated Mme. Mathieu and Mlle. Grasset, 6-3, 6-0.

Jean Borotra defeated his countryman, Feret, 4-6, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3, 6-1. Borotra will meet Howard Kinsey next in a semi-final match.

B. A. C. vs. Seals

The Y. M. C. A. last night went into a tie with the N. E. team for second place in the league standings by winning a loosely played game from N. E. by a 13 to 7 score. The winners made their runs on but four hits, aided by four bases on balls and nine errors.

Elvig deserved a better fate than he got. Three errors behind him in the first and three in the second had much to do with the nine runs made by the Y. M. C. A. in those innings. He allowed but four hits throughout the game, and struck out eight, the same number as Engbretson.

On the mound for the first time this year with his former mates, Engbretson pitched well. In the first three innings only one ball went to the outfield. The fourth inning was badly played, the Y players throwing the ball around in the manner of a grade school team.

Thon, centerfielder for the losers, was the outstanding player of both teams. He pounded out three hits, two of them doubles, and made the star catch of the day with a hard running grab off L. Thompson's bat in the third. Holman caught a nice game for N. E., and in addition made a double and a single with the willow.

Reason for Cold Weather

The naval observatory says while it is true that in the northern hemisphere the maximum difference between the heat lost at night and that gained by day occurs about December 21, it is also true that there is more lost at night than gained by day for some time after that. In other words one might say that the northern hemisphere cools off most rapidly about December 21, but still continues to cool after that time, though more slowly.

COUNCIL IN EDICT TO MAYOR CAIN

Orders Him to Sign Erick Graff's Check as Marked Fire Inspector and Watchman

THREATEN COURT PROCEDURE

Mayor Claims "Watchman" Makes Graff an Employee of the Police Department

The city council last night allowed Mayor George A. Cain one week to make up his mind whether or not he would sign Erick Graff's check as marked fire inspector and watchman.

At the expiration of that time if the mayor still refused to sign the check City Attorney H. D. Fullerton was given instructions to commence legal proceedings against him forcing him to sign the check.

Since Erick Graff's appointment by the council as an employee directly under the city council as "fire inspector and watchman" for the city at the salary of $115 a month, Mayor George Cain has refused to sign his check on the grounds that the word "watchman" on the check made Graff an employee in the police department, the department headed by him. He announced previously that he would be willing to sign the check if the word "watchman" was struck off, as he stated the word "watchman" constituted the duties of an active patrolman.

The action was taken by the council last night following the reading by City Attorney Fullerton of a letter from the attorney general in which he gave his opinion on the Graff question.

The attorney general ruled that the office of fire inspector and watchman constituted a legal office and employed by the council, the mayor of the city was compelled to sign the check. In case of the mayor refusing to sign the check, mandamus proceedings could be brought against him forcing him to sign.

The attorney general's opinion on the matter was requested at the last council meeting by Alderman Martin Anderson who when refused by the city council by motion requesting the city attorney to write the attorney general announced that he would get action from the attorney general himself.

When questioned by members of the council whether he had received an opinion from the attorney general, Martin Anderson replied that he had not written.

Council Sustained by Attorney General

To clear the city council, City Attorney Fullerton had written the attorney general on his own authority requesting his ruling with the result that the city council were right in appointing Erick Graff as fire inspector and watchman and that Mayor Cain was wrong in refusing to sign Graff's check.

Alderman Paine, speaking to Mayor Cain, "Now will you sign this check. If you won't we will take it to court and force you to sign it."

Mayor Cain—"I can't say right now, I would like a little time to think it over."

Martin Anderson—"I think this city council has had enough of this wrangling. The mayor has not said he would not sign the check, he is only an ordinary individual like the rest of us, give him a little time to think it over. Here he is up for recall and other unpleasant matters and then you want to bring up this matter. Don't let every little personality get the better of you."

Alderman Paine—"This is not personality, this is business."

City Attorney Fullerton—"I hope it will not be necessary to bring this matter into court, but legal opinion must be followed."

Martin Anderson—"I argued that Erick Graff has no authority as a policeman and the council hasn't the right to buy him a gun and shells. Here you buy him a gun and shells and the policeman and the regular policemen go around with hardly any shells."

City Attorney Fullerton—"The council has the right to buy anyone a gun and shells."

Alderman Wesley—"No bill was turned down for shells. I never refused any bill for any policeman confirmed by the city council for shells and flashlights."

When the motion was put calling for legal action against Mayor Cain in case he refused to sign the check, Aldermen V. F. Anderson, Martin Anderson, and Lewis voted against it and Aldermen Paine, Elvig, Holmstrom, Wesley, Ritari, and Lyons voted in favor. Alderman Quastrom was not in attendance.

Mayor's Request for Policeman Refused

The request of Mayor Cain that Franklin Hedeen be put on as part time policeman was turned down by majority of the council. Aldermen Paine, Holmstrom, Wesley, Ritari, Elvig and Lyons voting no, and Aldermen Martin Anderson, V. F. Anderson and Lewis voting in favor.

On the request of Mayor Cain that a man be put on to check up on the dog licenses issued, Erick Graff was appointed to the job.

The matter of connecting the police telephone line with Northeast Brainerd was left in the hands of the police committee. The committee were also instructed to take up the matter of the police telephone in the lane next to Garvey's Cafe, with the telephone company in regard to a better location.

Permit Contractors to Use Streets

Representatives of the Lenci & Gorman, contractors, of Virginia, who have the contract for the building of the Elks home on the corner of Sixth and Laurel streets, requested permission of the use of part of the sidewalks and roadways adjoining the construction for the storage of material used in the construction. The council passed a resolution granting a reasonable use of the streets under the supervision of the city engineer.

H. A. Kaatz, of the park board appeared before the council and requested permission to divide the band concerts this season evenly between Lum Park and Gregory Park. The request was granted.

Storm Sewer on Maple Street

The request of a storm sewer on Maple street was referred to the city engineer.

The purchasing committee was authorized to purchase three special police badges for use by park policemen.

Fire Chief McGinn appeared before the council asking advice in regard to answering calls from outside the city. He stated that recently they had received four requests from outside for help in fighting fires and had been unable to answer them. The fire, water and light committee were instructed to take up the matter with the county commissioners to see what could be done in regard to assistance and fire protection in places outside Brainerd who request city aid.

SPECIAL SESSION DISTRICT COURT AT BEMIDJI

TO TRY JOHN R. KIEWEL, FORMER MANAGER OF PACKING COMPANY

CHARGED WITH ALLEGED MIS-HANDLING OF PACKING PLANT FUNDS

Bemidji, Minn., June 8.—(UP)—A special session of district court convened here today to try John R. Kiewel, former manager of the Fergus Falls Packing Company, for alleged mishandling of packing plant funds.

Kiewel was indicted on three counts. He pleaded guilty to one, accepting a $500 fine, in the belief that the other counts would be dropped. But public sentiment in Fergus Falls caused Governor Theodore Christenson to appoint Judge C. W. Stanton to sit at a special trial.

No other case will be heard at this time. Ottentail county, whence the Kiewel case comes on change of venue, will pay all expenses, including those of a special venire of 30 prospective jurors, who reported today.

The Kiewel case is but one of a number relating to the affairs of the Fergus Falls Packing Company, which have been bobbing up in the courts for more than three years.

Litigation commenced when 100 suits were started in Ottentail district court against subscribers for stock in a co-operative packing company. Forty of these were on the calendar at one time, but only one came to trial, the company being awarded $700. Judgment by default was taken against some stockholders and others paid voluntarily.

Prosecution was dropped when a disagreement arose between the Fergus Falls Packing Company and the co-operative concern, which took over its business. The new concern charged fraud, sued for $40,000 and obtained $35,000.

The investigation of the packing company's affairs which resulted from the litigation caused the charges of mishandling funds to be made against Kiewel.

STEEL COMMON SHOWS STRENGTH

New York, June 8.—(UP)—No further recovery occurred in the body of stocks today notwithstanding the conspicuous strength displayed by Steel common which pushed into new high ground on the rebound from the March break.

Renewal of bearish efforts was observable in stocks like International Combustion and Hudson Motors suggesting that a professional element was feeling for the top of the current rally.

After displaying marked buoyancy during the first hour on a volume of dealings approaching 600,000 shares prices turned irregular. During the balance of the day selling went ahead in many departments under cover of Steel's advance.

EVERY WORD OF IT TRUE SAYS ST. PAUL PIONEER

"Why, I Had Rather Be Without Salt and Sugar In The House Than Be Without Karnak," Declares Mrs. Metzger.

"Why, I had rather be without salt and sugar in the house than to be without Karnak," declares Mrs. A. D. Metzger, of 265 Carroll Ave., St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. Metzger is one of the pioneer residents of St. Paul, having been born here only a few months after Minnesota became a state, and over eight months ago she first made a statement telling what wonderful results she had received from the use of Karnak, and she has been telling people of this medicine ever since, she declares.

"Why, only the other day," continues Mrs. Metzger, "a lady who had read my statement phoned me and asked if I was working for the Karnak people and if my statement was really true. I told her it was ridiculous to think of a person my age working for someone—I have enough with my housework—but everything I said was true and that Karnak would do the same for her.

"Why, before I got Karnak my stomach was so terribly disordered I didn't know what it was to eat a meal without being in pain afterward. I just suffered misery from indigestion, bloating and dizzy spells.

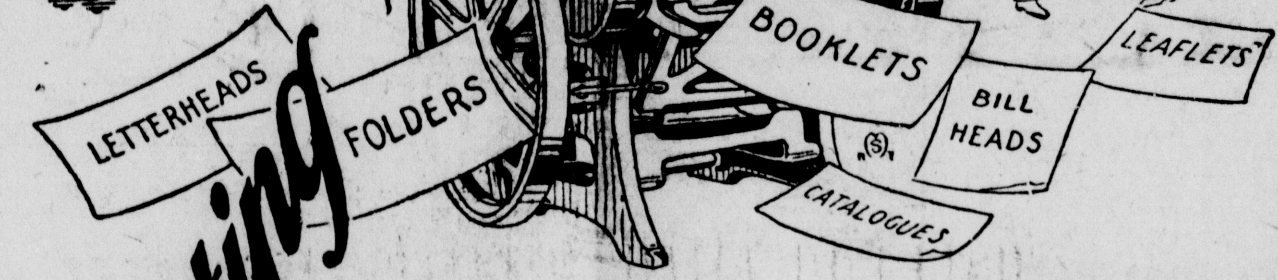

"I had awful pains in the region of my kidneys, too, was weak and nervous, and just felt so worn out all the time it was all I could do to drag about the house.

"But a neighbor of mine got me to try Karnak, and this glorious medicine just stopped all my troubles and built me up to wonderful health. I keep Karnak on hand all the time because it makes me feel safe and secure, and I feel that it is my duty to help every person I can by telling of this wonderful medicine."

Karnak is sold in Brainerd by all good drug stores, and by leading druggists in every town. —Advt.
